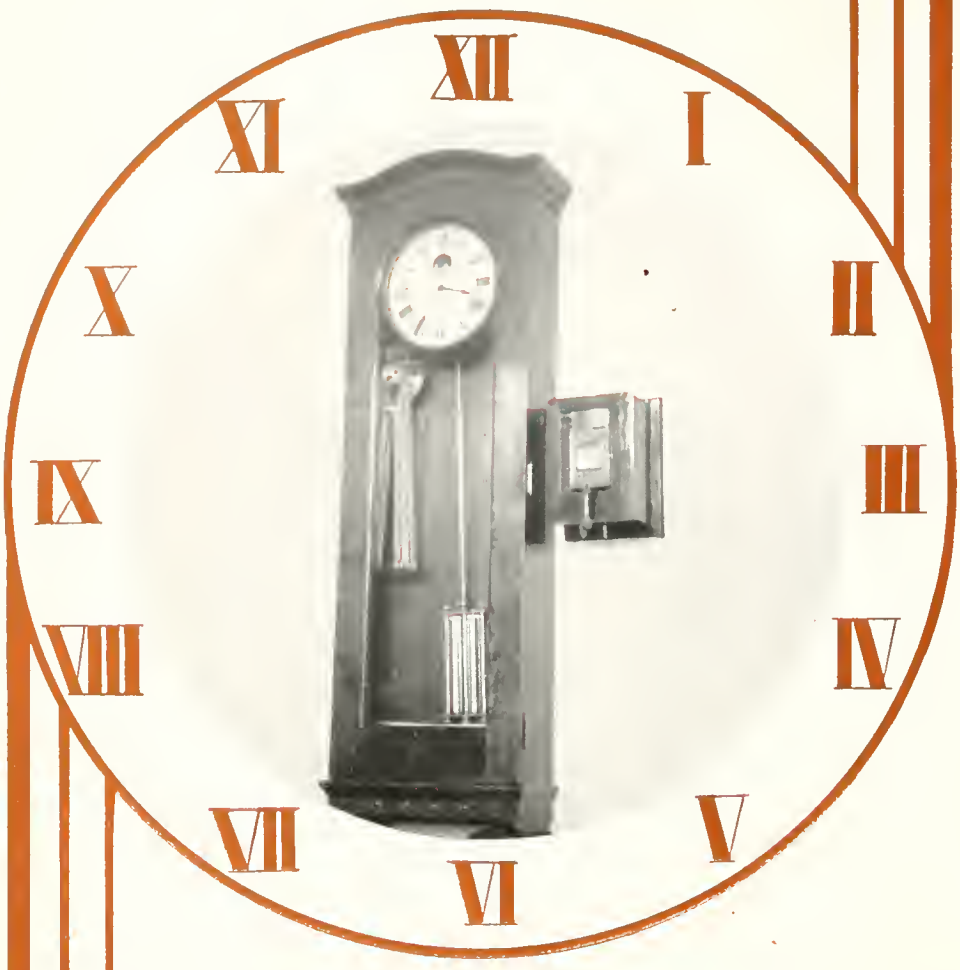
AUTILUS



Again the stately office clock has ticked away the many minutes in the past school year. The 1939 Nautilus now attempts to bring to the students of Jefferson High School the events of the past school year in this edition of the yearbook.

In hope of showing their deep gratitude towards the dean of boys the class of 1939 dedicates this twenty-sixth edition of the Nautilus to Lynn Miller. He has been giving his services to the school for the past eleven years.

ORDER O

Faculty

It's high time we were giving these teachers some recognition as friends rather than as taskmasters. They are very human people and, as you will see, have interesting likes—and dislikes, too, naturally. Under their schoolroom exteriors lie attractive personalities; the better you know them the more you like them. And they have a wealth of interesting experiences to share with you. So, if you want real friends, get acquainted with your teachers. You'll be glad you did.

Seniors

This is the last time these seniors will tread the venerable halls of Jefferson High School. When they get their diplomas, they will be congratulated and sent forth to make their way in the "big, bad world." However, there is no doubt that they will do credit to their training and make the most of what comes their way. So, having done their best by them, Jeff will send them forth with a confident "Future citizens, I salute you!"

Classes

Class time is time for work, or so we are told. I am sure this is a familiar sight, for Jeff's many students—or, at least, most of them—look intelligent and hard-working. Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors—each class grows smaller but wiser. "The Survival of the Fittest" rules here as elsewhere. From "Prep" to Senior each group goes, and those who stand by their class for four years are the cream of the crop.

F BOOKS

Activities

Play time—if you choose to call it that—can be filled with a thousand things—pep sessions, Glee Club, Mixed Chorus, Sunshine Society, G. A. C., Hi-Y, History Club, the Red and Black Revue—these are some of the things you can do in your leisure time. Each club is, as you will no doubt notice, full of interesting people. You know your classmates so much better if you know them outside the schoolroom, and joining clubs is the way to meet them.

Athletics

In these times a school is known as good or bad according to the quality of its athletes. Why this is true, and whether it is sound or unsound judgment need not be discussed here. But in any case, Jeff has no cause for worry, for the athletic department has every reason to be proud of its products. We, as loyal Jeff boosters, are confident that our teams can match any teams in the world—well, at least in the state.

Features

"The time has come . . . to talk of many things"—not "shoes and ships and sealing wax," but such attractions as jokes, the Calendar, the Special Honor Roll, and the Senior Prophecy and Will. "Variety is the spice of life," they say, so season your sober reading—if the Nautilus can be termed sober—with a few jokes. And then have your friends sign their names in your book, and the record of your past year of school will be complete.

Personnel

It's been a long climb up the slope, but now we stand at the crest of the school year, graduation time. It's time to relax, to enjoy a long look back to the successes achieved. . . . It's time to review those pleasant associations with the friends we met along the Trail. . . . And may our trails cross soon again!

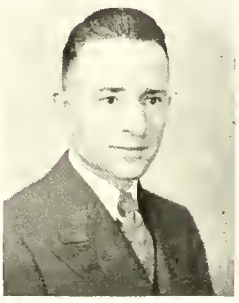
IN MEMORIAM



Quite suddenly from us you went.
Still reaching for the higher things:
Yet you left us a memory, blent
Of pure living, ideals — and wings!

There are souls so pure and high
That are known only to their peers:
They really never, never die,
But leave their imprint down the years.

There is gladness and grief for us all:
There is life on the other shore.
Our friend has only answered the call,
And gone on — a little while before.

— Wilma Fletemeyer

RETIRED

Probably the only sad note during the school year of 1938 was the retirement of one of Jefferson's oldest and most beloved teachers, Maude Leiter. . . . . For many years Miss Leiter was in the foremost ranks of Jefferson in the advancement of the educational and social life of this institution. Her classes in History and Economics were thoroughly enjoyed by all present and she was the one to whom the majority of the students went for advice and counsel in their troubles. . . . . Our wish and hope is that she will enjoy a well earned rest and vacation in her own inimicable style.

MEMORIES

In this book of memories, which I hold so very dear;
The pages may turn yellow with the passing of each year!
But what it really means to me will never, never fade;
For I hold its meaning worth much more than any priceless jade
Because it will remind me of all the happy days,
That I spent with all my class-mates when I learned how much it pays;
To be friendly, kind and generous to every one I meet;
For if you have a lot of friends, you will never know defeat.
I remember all the fun I had at the senior play and convocation;
I remember, too, the thrill I got, as I attended graduation.
These are just a few things: that filled our days with pleasure;
And I would not give up one, for memories are my treasure.

— Lois Westra, "40".

Senior Class History

"All the world's a stage and all the men and women are merely players." With these words by the immortal Shakespeare stamped indelibly in our minds, we started production on our play, "High School Life". . . . . Inexperienced we made many miscues in the first act. During the interim of Act I however, we were aided by faculty members and fellow members of the cast, who had successfully presented their first act. . . . . We began Act II with a fuller understanding of the importance of our roles. As a result some of us gained distinction in athletics. Others proved their scholastic ability by participating in Latin and Geometry contests, while others showed their talent by taking part in the Red and Black Revue. . . . . In Act III we again participated in athletics and took part in the Red and Black Revue. Our best bit of acting however was our part as hosts to the senior class at the Junior-Senior Picnic held at Turkey Run. . . . . We chose as the leading characters in Act IV Gordon De Vault, senior class president; Colleen Minnick, vice-president; Cornelius Callahan, secretary-treasurer; and Bernadine Lamb, senior dance chairwoman. We were lauded further for our presentation of the senior play, "Growing Pains". Another triumph came when we held our annual senior dance. . . . . Now, with expectancy we await our crowning triumph — the night of Commencement exercises, when we will receive our diplomas. Then with the plaudits of the crowd ringing in our ears the curtain will fall and our play will be over. . . . . As we reminisce in later life, we will always think of our first great triumph, which we made in the portals of Jefferson high school.

By Wayne Du Vall.

Senior Dance

With Cocky Robbins and his orchestra furnishing the music, nearly three hundred couples enjoyed the 1939 Senior dance which was held in the Jefferson gymnasium May 19. Clever arrangements of popular songs kept the dancers in a state of suspense and added to the enjoyment of an evening already abounding with such.

An outstanding featue of the dance was the decorations and lighting effects. On the stage at the front of the gym a garden effect setting occupied the spotlight. A pool in the center was surrounded by scenes of natural lustre, adding an air of reality to the program. From all sides of the gym were extended crepe paper streamers in pastel shades while a gigantic arch over the middle of the dance floor proper climaxed one of the best decorating arrangements which this annual affair has had in recent years.

Imitation knotted pine, typifying a door in effect, furnished the covers for the programs, one of the many fine pieces of workmanship turned in by the various committees under the supervision of Bun Lamb.

CLASS HISTORY

After three years in the stately halls of Jeff, we have passed through the stages of the "Traditional Timid Tots" and the Sophisticated Sophomore Swingsters" to the "Jefferson Junior Jitterbugs."

When we first entered this much talked about school, we were afraid of the teachers, upperclassmen, and even the rooms.

But after completing our freshman and sophomore years, we began to realize with some sorrow and some gladness that we would someday have to leave all this behind us. We now realize how much we are really enjoying every minute in Jeff, and how empty our lives will seem when we can no longer roam these halls.

We came here not knowing what Jeff held for us. After having been entertained with the first Red and Black Revue, the Senior play and dance, and the many other social activities, along with our school work, we decided that we liked Jeff.

When we had completed our sophomore year with the second Red and Black Revue, the Bronchoette's Gallop, the Booster Dance, and other social events, we were sure we liked Jeff.

Now that we are finishing our junior year with another Bronchoette's Gallop, Booster Dance, Red and Black Revue, Senior Play and, of course, the Senior Dance, we are very enthusiastic about Jeff and hate even the thought of leaving it.

Sophomores

CLASS HISTORY

The train "Freshie" left the station Childhood, and traveled onward for some time. At the next station it was rechristened "Sophomore," as it was now a year nearer its final station, Graduation, its depot, a high-school diploma.

This year the passengers numbered four hundred and forty.

The passengers, being Sophomores, now are at ease on their train and since they have been aboard for a whole year, know what not to do.

They have participated in many activities during the second year of their four-year journey. A few of these activities have been: the third Red and Black Revue, the Bronchoette Gallop sponsored by the Jeff girls, the annual Booster dance, the Sunshine Society, the Hi-Y, the Girl Reserves, and, of course, athletics.

Many Sophomores have been elected to membership in various clubs, such as: the History Club, the Science Club, the Studio Club, the Home Economics Club and the Commercial Club.

Although the passengers on board the train will greatly enjoy their days as Juniors and Seniors, their days as Sophomores will never be forgotten.

Freshmen

CLASS HISTORY

In our yesterdays we were the "seniors" of grade school, but in coming to Jeff as "preps," the sophomores soon squelched our high and mightiness.

At the first time we go down the wrong side of the stairs, we are frightened by the threat of being initiated. Many of the "upper-classmen" are laughing up their sleeves to find that we are the least bit interested in their sale of convocation tickets. But they, too, of course, went through the same misery of being a prep." We Hope!

In the halls at noon if we drop a book or fall down the stairs, a mighty cry of "Prep!" echoes through the hall, while our faces turn twenty-two different colors, ranging from purple in rage to a bright yellow. If one of the teachers calls us down we blush for all we're worth, if not more.

In four short years (they seem very, very short to us "preps") we must leave good old Jefferson High and travel the road of experience for more education.

THE PASSING OF AN OLD LANDMARK

Oh, he started to school as a freshman.
In the prime of his youth was he.
And the times he was called a Greeen-horn
By the seniors of nineteen-o-three.

The next year passed on without mishap
Except for the few C's and D's.
So Willie remained still a freshman
But studied as hard as could be.

With twenty-five years to his credit
And four credits marked to his name.
Willie passed on to his 9A year
While his youngsters passed to the same.

But today all is gloom in the schoolhouse.
As Willie reached two score ten
And they realize upon graduation
The loss of a landmark from them.

THE BOYS' GLEE CLUB . . . . Select boys who are interested in widening their knowledge of music and creating a greater interest in four-part singing may do so by joining the Glee Club. . . . . Following a practice of recent years, the Glee Club contributed its part toward several radio programs which were broadcast over WBAA. They also participated in the annual convocation when the Christmas Cantata was presented to the student body. The Cantata this year was "The Star of the Christ-Child," by Edward Norman. . . . . The major project of the second semester was the production of the light opera, "The Pirates of Penzance." In conjunction with the other musical organizations, the Glee Club spent many hours of intensive rehearsal in order to insure the success of the show. . . . . The remainder of the semester was taken up with broadcasting and the rehearsal of the selections which were rendered the night of graduation. . . . The Club also provided entertainment at convocations and various programs throughout the year. . . . . The organization owes much of its success to its supervision by our able directress, Miss White. . . . . The officers were: Floyd McDowell, president; Michael Carroll, secretary-treasurer; George Needham, librarian.

JEFF BOOSTER . . . . In '37 our predecessors said. "With its books showing a profit of more than fifty dollars, the Jeff Booster brought its 1936-1937 publishing year to a close. . . . ." In '38 they said—so very modestly—". . . . the Booster staff this year has cooperated to achieve a publication that has been a welcome variation from the more conventional papers of previous years." . . . . Well, we can't say we made a profit of fifty dollars. We don't know yet whether we won or lost on this deal. And we won't say our publication has been such a "welcome variation." But we can say we've worked awfully hard. We've done our best to put out an interesting paper, one that will satisfy both the reading public and the authorities. That is a job. Just try to satisfy every one and you'll be aware of the problems we have. . . . . But don't think it's all work and no play. . . . . It's been swell putting out a paper. Swell experience, swell fun, and—but how inelegant we're becoming! To phrase things more seriously, and we're really serious now, Booster work is one school memory we'll want to keep forever. . . . . Last year's Booster won a prize; this year's paper may not win any prize, but it's given those who worked on it a great reward—the reward of seeing something that has taken shape in their minds become form and substance and a readable paper.

CARVER HI-Y CLUB . . . . The George Washington Carver Hi-Y Club was organized on November 19, 1938, as a branch of the former Crispus Attucks Hi-Y, which started in 1928. For several weeks meetings were held before a name had been formally adopted. After much discussion over several worthy names of our race, the members selected George Washington Carver because he is one of the most outstanding negro leaders of the day. . . . . The meetings are held every Monday night at Lincoln School. The meetings begin at 7:30 p. m. and the first hour is a business meeting after which a recreational hour is held. Members include the students in Jefferson High School and Purdue students who are interested in the club. . . . . The activities for this year included programs in the various churches, working with the girls' club of the High School, joint parties, observing important dates with programs, and giving baskets during the Christmas holidays. . . . . On Thursday nights the members meet for chorus rehearsal. The accompanist is Mrs. Henrietta Patterson. . . . . The officers are: Kennie Jones, President; Floyd Starks, Vice-President; Bernard Lillard, Secretary; and S. R. McElwaine, Treasurer and Sponsor.

Our Newest Hi-Y

JEFFERSON DEBATE TEAM . . . . The question for the debate this year was: "Resolved: That the United States Should Establish an Alliance with Great Britain." To start the year the team attended the Purdue University Debate Conference and then attended the invitational tournaments at Fort Wayne, Anderson, and Bloomington. Single debates were held with Lebanon. The sectional tournament was held in Lafayette at the Purdue Union Building. . . . . Debate, one of the many extra curricular activities of the school, proves very beneficial to a student because of the necessity for knowing the subject thoroughly, the competition with one another and with pupils of other schools, helping the students think logically, and helping them to express themselves before people. . . . . Four of the debate squad were new this year with only two veterans, Jordan McCarty and Warren Thompson, competing. . . . . The Affirmative team consisted of Miss Mary Ann Hazelgrove, Warren Thompson, and John Schaibley. On the Negative team were Warren Ardapple, Jordan McCarty, and Dan Kahle. Mr. G. Earl Carroll was the debate coach. . . . . Debate awards this year were made on Honor Day with sweaters being awarded to Warren Ardapple and Mary Ann Hazelgrove. Letters awards were given the others as Jordan McCarty and Warren Thompson had already received sweaters.

FORENSIC CLUB . . . . The purpose of the Forensic Club is to furnish an opportunity for students to practice oratory, debating, parliamentary procedure, and promotion speech activities. Mr. Rogers, who is the sponsor of the club, lends a guiding hand in all of these activities. . . . . The season opened with the election of officers and a constitution was drawn up by a committee. . . . . There were three outstanding entertainments of the season. The first was the Pow-Wow held at Murdock Park. This was a picnic and weiner roast combined. The second outstanding entertainment was the Christmas Party held at the home of Martalee Snyder. The third and final entertainment was the Forensic Club Picnic, which was enjoyed during the latter part of May. . . . . Entertainments for the club meetings were furnished by Mr. Carroll, who gave an interesting speech on his tour of Europe; by the public speaking classes who gave interpretations of poems; by Lieutenant Edward Farley, of the police department, and by the club members themselves who gave interesting panel discussions, jokes, and other entertainments. . . . . Outside entertainments consisted of the contests between West Side and Jefferson High School Forensic Clubs in which Eldora Noe, Henry Horn, and Bill Levering participated. Eldora Noe and Bill Levering also entered the contests at Central Indiana. There will be other contests, such as the Discussion League, Extemporaneous Speaking contest, and the Declamation Contest which includes oratorical, humorous, and dramatic sections. . . . . The officers for the year were the following: Bill Levering, president; Betty J. Mowry, vice president; Marjorie Piggott, secretary-treasurer; Mark Hale, sergeant at arms.

GIRLS' ADVISORY COUNCIL . . . . The membership of the Girls' Advisory Council is made up of girls having twelve or more credits and chosen by the faculty because of their scholastic record and ability to lead. They endeavor to give service to the school and to cooperate in order to make all the activities of the school a success. . . . . Miss Irma Slayback, dean of girls, guided the council through a very successful year. . . . . The members of the G. A. C. serve as office scouts, collect attendance slips, make up attendance reports, deliver admits, and are on duty in the Sunshine room each school hour. . . . . Beside the duties performed around school by the members, the council is also interested in charity. At Christmas, the council joined with the Sunshine Society in the activities which resulted in spreading good cheer to many destitute families. . . . . One of the main social events of the year, is the Mother's Day Banquet at which time the girls pay tribute to their mothers by having them as honored guests at a delicious banquet and by presenting them with favors. . . . . As every girl enters Jefferson and learns of the honor of being chosen a member of the Girls' Advisory Council, it becomes an incentive to belong to this very worthwhile group. . . . . Delores Gingrich, president; Bernadine Lamb, vice president; Sarah Andrew, secretary, and Lois Baugher, treasurer.

THE GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION . . . . The Girls' Athletic Association has become a very important organization of our school. Each year more girls are participating in the variety of sports. . . . . Badminton was introduced this year. . . . . Dancing, especially social dancing, under the sponsorship of Miss Lucile Anderson, has been very popular. A selected group gave a specialty number in the Light Opera. At the end of the season, an informal tea dance was given. The class entertained their guests by giving their version of the Chestnut Tree and the Lambeth Walk. . . . . The pantomime sports act, Athens to America, was given at the district Sunshine Convention. The rag doll tumbling act given for the Red and Black Revue was repeated for the Good Fellows party at Christmas. The tumblers gave a demonstration before the physical education teachers of this district. . . . . Mary Oehrtman, Marjorie Piggot, and Lucile Fowler, the letter girls in school this year, helped as leaders in the activities. . . . . A farewell party for Lucile Fowler in November and a lovely Christmas party with Miss Aldridge as the guest of honor were two highly successful social functions. . . . . In April we joined the State League of G. A. A. and participated in the Play Day at Purdue. Work on a demonstration to be given at the dedication of the Athletic Field has occupied the spring months. . . . . With the facilities of the new field and belonging to the state league, we are anticipating better athletics for Jefferson girls.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB . . . . The Girls' Glee Club was organized several years ago with the purpose of bringing more music to the girls interested in singing. The club was formed at the beginning of the semester by Miss Camilla White, the directress and sponsor of this organization. Certain qualities of the voice are preferred. . . . . The meetings were held every Monday and Wednesday mornings. At the first meeting the constitution was adopted. It contained those things that concerned rehearsals, committees for social events, and the dues for the semester. These dues were non-compulsory and were to be used for several parties during the first half of the year. The officers for the year 1938-39 were: Margaret Beck, president; Virginia Sellers, secretary-treasurer; and Alice Brassie, librarian. In the meetings class voice lessons were given and songs were practiced for special performances. . . . The performances for the year were broadcasts from school, a Christmas Cantata, "The Star of the Christ-Child," by Edward Norman, "The Pirates of Penzance," a light opera by Gilbert and Sullivan, and songs for commencement. . . . This year proved very active for the club and was ended by the annual picnic at Ideal Beach.

TRI-Y GIRL RESERVES . . . . Under the leadership of their president, Maxine Runkle, and sponsors, Miss Royster, Miss Seever, and Miss Norman, the Tri-Y Girl Reserves have completed a very successful year. . . . . The emblem of the girls is a triangle within a circle. The circle represents the world in which there are many such clubs. The triangle represents the body, mind, and spirit on which the club concentrates in developing every Girl Reserve. . . . . The club colors are blue, which signifies truth, and white, which signifies purity. . . . . The purpose "to find and to help others find health in body, mind, and spirit" is the goal of each member. . . . . During the year many activities were enjoyed such as, a hike, a weiner roast, Valentine party, Christmas party, party for Senior girls, and a Mothers' Tea. . . . . All girls belonging have had an interesting time and wish to urge others to join when the time comes. . . . . The officers for the year were the following: President, Maxine Runkle; Vice-President, Effie Anne Snider; Secretary, Katherine Ritenour; and Treasurer, Bettie Gay.

HISTORY CLUB . . . . The popular belief of many students that history is "bunk" has been "debunked" by Miss Wilma Fletemeyer, who organized the History Club ten years ago. She still sponsors the work of the club. . . . . The purpose of the club, which is to create a greater interest in history, has been carried out in the various programs which have been enjoyed. In November an interesting lecture on present day Germany was given by Mr. Conrad Werner. In December Miss Ward, a member of the faculty, gave a vivid description of Ireland, which she visited last summer. For the February meetting, Mr. Carroll, also of the faculty, described his trip abroad which took him to France, Italy, and Switzerland. In April, Miss Vera Schaaf gave a most interesting book review. . . . . It is the custom of the club to hold an annual picnic in May. This picnic is usually held at some historic site. . . . . The club, which has had an interesting and enjoyable year, is continuing to create a greater interest in history among the students of Jeff. . . . . The officers for the entire school year were: Martha McCool, president; Marian Yopst, vice-president; Maxine Runkle, secretary; and John Pfrommer, treasurer.

HI-Y . . . . Out of the three Hi-Y clubs which existed formerly at Jefferson, a single club was organized at the beginning of the 1938-39 school year. The name of the new organization as adopted by the charter members is the Jefferson Hi-Y Club. It now numbers about fifty members. Two members of the faculty, G. E. Carrol and G. Hitchings, are the sponsors. . . . . Among the social affairs of the year for the members were a steak-fry in the fall, and a Christmas dinner-dance at Lincoln Lodge to which the fellows took their best girls. A skating party at Maple Point was sponsored later in the fall, with a large crowd of students attending. At Christmas several Hi-Y members assisted at the Goodfellows party for underprivileged children, and during the basketball season three "Hi-Y Mixers" were held in the cafeteria after the games. Don Pyke's orchestra furnished the music. . . . . The constitution of the newly organized Hi-Y was drawn up and adopted at the beginning of the year. . . . . The officers elected for the year were: Clarence Naville, president; Jim Pechin, vice-president; Sam Riley, secretary; and Fred Heimlich, treasurer. On the resignation of Fred Heimlich as treasurer at the end of the first semester, Richard Ball was elected as his successor for the second semester.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB . . . . The Jefferson Home Economics Club is affiliated with the State and National Home Economics Associations. . . . . The club's aim is to provide the girls with a wider knowledge of the subjects involved in successful homemaking. . . . . "Opportunities open to the home economics trained girl" was the theme for the year, and to carry out the theme many interesting speakers talked on subjects relating to home economics. . . . . The social events of the club's tenth anniversary year were many and interesting such as an anniversary and senior party, a joint meeting with the West Side Home Economics Club, a tour through the Purdue Union Cafeteria, a chili supper, and the annual grandmothers' tea. . . . . At the State Convention, held last October in Indianapolis, Henrietta Davis and Marilyn Danley attended as representatives of Jefferson. Marilyn Danley was elected state reporter. . . . . The officers this year are these: Marilyn Danley, president; Henrietta Davis, vice president; Iola Crawford, secretary; Marietta Burkhardt, treasurer. . . . . Miss Keltie McCoy and Miss Gleela Ratcliffe were sponsors of the club again this year.

THE MASTER MACHINISTS' CLUB . . . . In 1929 the Master Machinists' Club was organized for the purpose of making more definite contacts between the school shops and the industrial concerns of the community. . . . . During the past school year this purpose has been carried out very well. Several inspection trips to the leading factories have been sponsored. The Club has also shown three reels of motion pictures dealing with industrial topics and safety features. These pictures were presented to the student body whose appreciation was greatly shown. A one-ton arbor press was sponsored and built this year and many new spot lights were made in the school shop. The press is being used in the school shop and the spot lights have been placed upon both of the school's stages. . . . . Mr. Wills, the Club sponsor, and the Club members have helped to a great extent in making the Red and Black Revue, the senior play, the opera, and other dramatic offerings grand successes. Difficult lighting problems were solved and carried out in an interesting manner. . . . . During the football and basketball seasons, the club members made their efforts count in no small way. They assisted in passing out programs and handling the score board. . . . . After these and several other activities had been accomplished, the Master Machinists' Club considered the 1938-39 year a success.

MIXED CHORUS . . . . The Mixed Chorus, a musical organization open to all students who are interested in music and who like to sing, has achieved much this year. . . . As usual, the chorus participated in many activities. In addition to broadcasting over WBAA, the Purdue Broadcasting Station, they have also taken part in the all-school show, "The Red and Black Revue"; provided a Christmas convocation, a cantata entitled "Star of the Christ Child," and more recently the chorus presented the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance." As an annual activity, the Mixed Chorus also provided music for graduation. . . . . The credit is due to the girls and boys who have helped make these accomplishments possible and to their director, Miss Camilla White. Miss White has, through her capable ability and untiring efforts, made the Mixed Chorus an organization of which the student body is justly proud. . . . . As in past years, the club's activities closed with another delightful picnic at the beach. The officers for the school year 1938-1939 were the following: Jearldeen Hargin, president; Betty Jane Mowry, secretary-treasurer; Floyd McDowell, librarian.

NAUTILUS STAFF . . . . Realizing that subscribers to the school annual every year want a bigger and better book, this year's staff started out to satisfy the desires of their customers. Toward this goal the staff has worked most industriously for the last eight months. . . . . For them they have edited a bigger book, more pictures, more snaps, and more write ups; a better book, better layouts, more appeal, and a modern book with modern color, type, and design. . . . . Now at the end of these eight months the staff feels that they have reached their goal. But still does not wish to take all the glory. Indeed not, they are grateful to all those who gave outside help. To those students who helped in circulation campaigns, to those students who wrote write-ups for their respective organizations, to the office staffs, scouts, typists, and to all others who have aided the staff in any way what so ever. . . . . So with the completion of this year's NAUTILUS they present it to you students, our subscribers. The staff takes its leave, it was their work for a short past, but now it is your book for a near long future.

ORATORY . . . . Seventeen participated in the various speech contests during the year 1938-1939. . . . . Bill Levering and Betty Needham with "What Democracy Means to Youth", and Eldora Noe with "Unknown", mastered the oratorical declamation. The first and third represented J. H. S. in the Central Indiana Oratorical Association at Frankfort Nov. 22. . . . . Dorothy Watt with "How We Hunted a Mouse" and Phyllis Staly with "A Night of Horror" entertained with humorous readings. . . . . Bill Wells and Bette Davis with "Scratch", Martalee Snyder and Robert Freyman with "The Blacksmith's Story", and Bette Galbraith with "The Two Pictures" gave dramatic readings. . . . . In the state dramatic and humorous reading contest at Franklin College on March 25, J. H. S. entered Eldora Noe, Bill Levering, Bill Wells, Martalee Snyder, and Dorothy Watt. . . . . In the Logansport tournament on March 9 J. H. S. had Charles Hawkins, Phyllis Staley, Bill Levering, Eldora Noe, Sherrill Gillespie with "The 'Liztown Philosopher", and Henry Horn with "A Leap Year Episode" (When Nellie Came to Woo). . . . . On the subject of an alliance between the United States and Great Britain, John Schaibley took up the contestant's spirit and won the county because there were no other entries, and won second place in the district contest on April 10. In extemporaneous speaking the tryouts were Bette Childress, John McMahon, Harvey Manis, Charles Hawkins.

RIDING CLUB . . . . In the fall of 1938, when Mr. Carl Martin came to Jefferson to teach, he brought along some ideas that have proven very successful and interesting to the student body. . . . . After leaving Purdue, Mr. Martin spent some time in the United States Cavalry at Fort Bliss, Texas, where he became very much interested in horses. During his first semester, Mr. Martin suggested that the Jeff students organize a Riding Club. The idea was received enthusiastically by a great number of students who were interested in this line of recreation and a club was immediately organized by them. . . . . The purpose of the Club is to stimulate students' interest in horses by teaching, along with actual riding, the care and the interesting points on the subject of horses. . . . . The meetings this year have been most interesting. In February the group motored to Culver, Indiana, to attend a polo match at the Culver Military Academy. The members have also enjoyed riding facilities in the city throughout the school year. . . . . It is a sincere wish of the Jefferson High School Riding Club to increase its membership and to strive to increase interest in riding to a still greater extent in the future.

JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL

Presents

THE RED AND BLACK REVUE

FOREWORD FROM OFFICIAL PROGRAM

This year, Jefferson High School comes with its third stage show in which every student and teacher has worked in its production.

In 1936, between the football and basketball seasons we introduced to you our first all school performance. It was the first Red and Black Revue. It provided another way of becoming better acquainted with the high school.

Tonight you will see and hear over 300 boys and girls upon the stage. Acts and specialties of their own creation, in which there has been work as well as fun in preparation. They show them now for your enjoyment.

Morris E. McCarty, Superintendent.

SCIENCE CLUB . . . . The Science Club was organized for all students who are interested in various sciences such as photography, chemistry, physics, geology, biology, parapsychology, hiking, and astronomy. The club will soon become affiliated with the Indiana Academy of Science. . . . . The Science Club now possesses a completely equipped and up-to-date dark room in which those members interested in photography may develop, print, and enlarge their own films. . . . . During the past year the club has enjoyed many interesting programs. Outstanding among these was Professor Robertson, who gave an interesting talk on the errions actions of the boomerang. The club also enjoyed a Christmas Party, a gift exchange being the feature. . . . . The sponsor of the club is Mr. Kenneth H. Dobelbower, who this year joined the Jefferson faculty as a teacher of biology. The officers for the first semester were: Bob Sattler, President; George Pfrommer, Vice President; Jack Zahn, Secretary-Treasurer; and James Payne, Sergeant at Arms. The officers for the second semester were: Bob Tullis, President; George Pfrommer, Vice President; Aaron Kremer, Secretary-Treasurer; and Harry Overesch, Sergeant at Arms.

STUDIO CLUB . . . . With the sponsor, Miss Kienly, the Studio Club has accomplished many of its plans for the year. Some of the plans accomplished were parties, sketching groups, and meetings. . . . . The club is open to all those interested in art. The purpose of the club is to create an interest and appreciation in the artists of today. Thirty-five members were enrolled in the organization this year. . . . . A business meeting is held twice a month at which time plans for the monthly party are made. These parties are held for members and their guests and also to raise money for the club treasury. . . . . The club this year has had many more members than many of the previous years and can be well remembered in the school activities of the year. . . . . One of the outstanding events of the year, which will always be remembered by the members who appreciate well proportioned, designed, and balanced art, was the visit to the museum to see Mrs. Louise Kelly's display. Mrs. Kelly is a well known artist who has traveled all over the world. . . . . The officers for the year were: Bette Heath, president: Bette Davis, vice-president: Anna Grace Hart, secretary: Bonita Davis, treasurer.

Row 1—M. Deets, J. Davis, A. Palmer, B. Davis, B. Heath, D. Camp, A. Robertson, Bonita Davis. Row 2 D. Wolters, Wilma Grimes, K. Keys, A. Hart, Y. Buehler, S. Corso, J. Speckhardt, A. McKinniss, E. Growing Pains

SENIOR PLAY . . . . "Growing Pains," that hilarious comedy of adolescent youth, written by Aurania Reuverol, was the class of '39's contribution to Jeff's history of senior plays. . . . . We had fun putting it on. Rehearsals were seldom boring, though we probably annoyed our coach at times with all our antics. Missing cues—strewing the caps of coke bottles on the floor—pounding out crazy tunes on the piano—bringing in sound effects at the wrong time. Those were a few of the diversions that broke the monotony of practicing up to the last week. . . . . Then, however, harried members of the cast could be seen in odd places, anxiously muttering lines. Of course, none of us really feared stage-fright, but you know how one feels at a time like that. One visualizes a sea of faces in a dark and silent auditorium, and himself standing in the center of a brightly-lighted stage, bereft of words. . . . . Despite dread of such a calamity, no unfortunate breaks occurred on the night of the performance. The three acts were carried through without mishap. . . . . Backstage, naturally, there was a mad scramble. Make-up had to be applied, miscellaneous properties accumulated, last minute glances at the script taken, and the dog (the most self-possessed member of the cast) induced to stop running happily around and sit quietly in an unobtrusive corner. . . . . When it was all over, we felt an instinctive disappointment—a letdown after all the excitement. Regardless of the time and concentration a play requires, it is a worthwhile activity. I am sure that this class will remember "Growing Pains" as a pleasant part of its last year at Jeff.

JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL BAND . . . . The Jefferson High School Band was started about the year 1927 by Miss Camilla White and Miss Rena Rice. The task of organizing the band was a very difficult one, because of the lack of finances and musicians. . . . . Soon after the band had gotten under way, Mr. J. I. Skidmore followed Miss White and Miss Rice in the task of directing the organization. . . . . Mr. Bernard A. McAdams, our present director, next came to try his hand at developing still further the band and was found to be quite successful. . . . . The band, which now has eighty-seven pieces, has won in the past few years several district, state, and national awards in marching, concert, solo, and ensemble groups. The Jeff band is one of the finest high school musical organizations in the state, and with the newly acquired uniforms the band stands out even better than before. . . . . Besides playing for concerts the band plays for athletic events, contests, broadcasts, conventions, and many other activities. . . . . Several trophies, medals, and cash prizes have been won by the band members at both contests and conventions for its outstanding musical ability. Their marching ability has also gained much attention at the contests in the state.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY . . . . The Sunshine Society strives to spread sunshine wherever and whenever possible. . . . . Membership in the society is elective and any girl who enters Jefferson may become a member. The Sunshine Society each year tries to carry on its work so that it will be a worthwhile organization in the school and in the community. . . . . Throughout the year the Society has aided the students by buying books, lunches, shoes, and clothing; has sent flowers to ill students and teachers. Contributions are also made to the Tuberculosis Association and to the Community Fund. . . . . To carry on these activities, money is raised by selling candy at football and basketball games and at the candy counter during the noon hour. . . . . Annually, the Society sponsors the Bronchoette Gallop, to which the girls escort the boys. This year's Gallop again proved to be a success. The proceeds of the dance were given to the Goodfellow's Fund. . . . . The friendships formed through working together for charitable purposes are lasting ones, and the members feel that the Sunshine Society is quite a worthwhile organization. . . . . The officers are: Carolyn Holtman, president; Janet Glatz, vice president, and Dorothy Kamp, secretary.

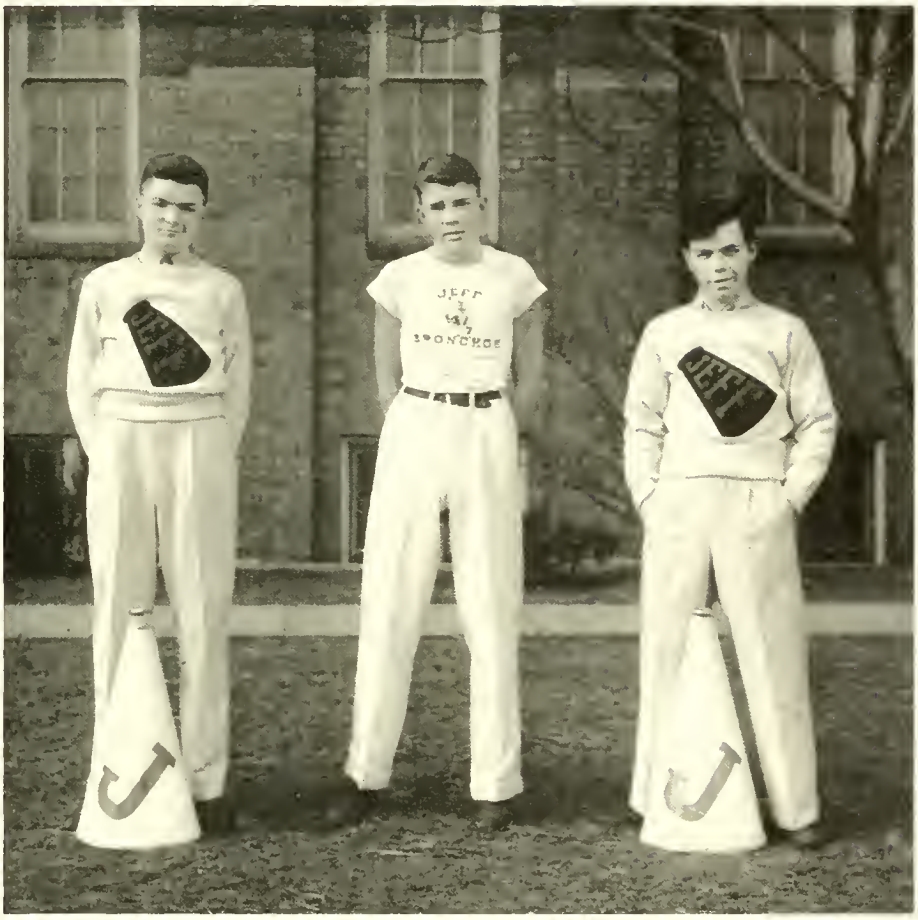
Yell Leaders



KEITH LAHR JIM METZGER FRITZ HEIMLICH

ALTHOUGH at times during the past year the students' attitude toward sports was none too good, the three cheer leaders never gave up on either the team or the school. . . . . To these three boys go the congratulations of the entire student body for the manner in which they carried out their work. Keith Lahr, a freshman and one of the most enthusiastic yell leaders Jeff has ever had. "Fritz" Heimlich, a senior who entered the ranks of yell leaders in mid-term and proved a valuable addition, and Jim Metzger, all gave their best, and no more can be asked of anyone. . . . . Keith and Jim will both be back next year so Jeff's worries on this score are well taken care of. The loss of "Fritz" will be felt keenly for the students seemed to yell their loudest when he was directing them.

SUMMARY OF

JEFF. 13: LOGANSPORT. 12—In a breath-taking exhibition of sheer power. Abie Masters' Bronchos opened their 1938 football season with a 13-12 triumph over Logansport's Berries. The Brones scored in the first quarter after a series of fumbles. Lancaster started a march from his own 32 and four plays later he scored from the 12. Lancaster passed to Henniger for the extra point and the ultimate margin of victory. Gordy DeVault counted the second tally after another series of four plays had placed the ball in scoring position. Cors. Basenfelder. Pechin. and Atha in the line and Walt Ford. Lancaster. Wellington. and DeVault in the backfield were outstanding.

JEFF. 41: FRANKFORT. 18—With 5,500 fans and a new stadium furnishing an incentive to win. the Bronchos crushed the Frankfort Hot Dogs. 41-18. The Dogs were expected to furnish stiffer opposition but the Brones literally went crazy. with the line. notably Basenfelder. Pechin. and Kelley. breaking Lancaster. Goonen. Wellington. and DeVault away for numerous gains. Walt Ford's field-generalship was once again very good. It was the Brone's second-straight conference victory and another link in their string of wins over Hot Dog football teams.

JEFF. 6: TECH. 0—Floyd Lancaster's ecly running in the first three minutes of play gave the Mastermen a well-earned 6-0 victory over Tech's Big Green. A superb line-defense combined with DeVault's great kicking to protect this slim lead gave the Stable Boys their third conference win. Chuck Basenfelder. "Gopher" Pechin. Vince Cors. and Carl Atha stopped all of Tech's advances as DeVault's great kicking rarely let the Arsenals outside of their own 20-yard stripe. Ford and Wellington's pass defense was also outstanding.

JEFF, 13: CRAWFORDSVILLE. 6—The Brone reserves played nearly all of the game and had no trouble whatsoever in registering an easy 13-6 win. Henry Gunstra tore the Athenian line to shreds and Johnny Goonen. together with Art Long. drove the C'ville defense crazy with end runs. The Brones' first score was the result of a sustained drive from the Jeff 33 which ended with Goonen counting on an end sweep from the 7. Long tallied in the second quarter from the 13 with beautiful blocking provided by Basenfelder and Pechin.

THE SEASON

JEFF. 7: SHORTRIDGE. 0—Boasting a clean record and a reputation of power and speed, the Blue Devils expected to extend their win streak at the expense of the Bronchos, but a combination of DeVault's kicking, Lancaster's and Wellington's running, and great line play by Basenfelder, Pechin, Atha, and Cors was too much for them. Lancaster scored from the 6-yard stripe with three minutes left to play in the fourth quarter. Walt Ford was never calling his plays better as he drove his charges to another victory.

JEFF. 0: WEST SIDE. 0—Apparently over-confident by their previous record, the Bronchos suffered a scoreless tie at the hands of their ancient rivals from across the river. Johnny Goonen presented the Horsemen with their only scoring opportunity with one minute of play left in the fourth stanza when he drove to the Devil 3 only to find a mate offside on the play. Various penalties also cost the Brones possession of the ball when they had drives under way. Pechin, Basenfelder, and Henniger, with Goonen and Long caught the lime-light for the Bronchos.

JEFF. 6: KOKOMO. 12—The Wildcats handed the Mastermen their second conference setback since 1933 and knocked them out of their third consecutive conference title when they licked them, 12-6, on a 75-yard dash by Frazier. Wellington registered the Bronchos' only points on a pass from Lancaster in the waning minutes of the third period. Pechin, Horn, Henniger, and Cors looked best for the Bronchos in the line while DeVault and Wellington stood out in the backfield.

BRONCS HAVE GOOD RECORD—Although the Bronchos of Jefferson did not win the coveted North Central Conference title, they can still boast of a good record for the year, winning five out of seven games and tying one. The marvelous spirit of the boys was never lost throughout the season. The conference title depended on the Kokomo game but the team seemed unable to put the pigskin across the goal line more than once, although at many times it seemed as though the Brones would crash through with the needed points. The worse blow they had to take was the scoreless tie with the boys from across the river.

SUMMARY OF THE SEASON

After getting off to a bad start in their regularly scheduled games, Jefferson's Bronchos concluded the season with a rush and made a fine showing in both the sectional and regional tournaments thus fulfilling Coach Masters' pre-season prediction that the team would not make a very good showing in the first part of the year but that they would be a good ball club by the time the schedule was completed.

JEFF. 24: CRAWFORDSVILLE. 17—Jeff's eagers opened the season with a 24-17 decision over C'ville in a rather ragged encounter. Vince Cors, Jim Pechin, and Johnny Goonen were the key men in the opener as the Bronco preserved their record of never being defeated by C'ville as long as Abe Masters is coaching.

KOKOMO. 36: JEFF. 20—Led by Red Campbell and Chet Gabriel, Kokomo's giant Wildcats dealt the Bronco their first defeat as they crushed them by using superior height and greater experience to good advantage. The losers were led by Bob Westra, Hank Horn, and Connie Vanderkolk.

CONNERSVILLE. 21: JEFF. 19—An off night on the basket by the Bronchos gave the Spartans a win despite heroic efforts by Johnny Goonen, Jim Pechin, and Hank Horn to salvage the Broncho ship.

RICHMOND. 28: JEFF. 26—Jeff's basketeers suffered their third consecutive loss as Richmond's deadly accuracy on free throws gave them an eight point advantage in this department and the game. Johnny Goonen, Bob Westra, and Jim Pechin kept the Bronchos in the running until late in the fourth period when all three were whistled from the game.

ANDERSON. 21: JEFF. 17—Although holding a 12-10 half-time lead, the Bronchos faltered in the stretch and went down to their fourth straight defeat. Vanderkolk, Horn, and Pechin looked best for the losers.

KOKOMO. 31: JEFF. 25—Once more outscored from the charity line, the Bronchos dropped again although the fine showing of junior Marvin Dykhuizen gave the Jeffmen hopes for future success. Westra grabbed high point honors for the Bronchos with nine markers, but was pushed hard by Johnny Goonen with eight.

JEFF. 29: DELPHI. 27—Snapping a five game losing streak, Jeff edged out Delphi's Oracles when Jim Pechin bagged a field goal with 30 seconds of play left. Marv Dykhuizen's fielder had tied the game up but a half-minute before. Bob Westra also played fine ball for the Bronchos.

BASKETBALL

NEW CASTLE, 25; JEFF, 23—Again free-throwed to defeat, the Bronchos were very disappointing. Dykhuizen, Goonen, and Horn all played fine ball but the other boys suffered from a decidedly off-night.

WEST SIDE, 25; JEFF, 17—For the first time in nine years, West Side beat Jeff during the regular season. The Red Devils were never behind and showed plenty of class in this tilt. Bob Stephan, Vince Cors, and Hank Horn were Jeff's outstanding players.

FRANKFORT, 44; JEFF, 36—Despite a personal offensive by Jim Pechin which netted him 20 points for the evening's festivities, the Broncs sank in defeat once more. Pechin racked up 13 points in the third stanza but received fine support in so doing from Goonen, Westra, Vanderkolk, Cors, and Horn.

SHORTRIDGE, 39; JEFF, 37—Scoring in the first five seconds of the overtime stanza, the Blue Devils tacked the ninth defeat in eleven games onto the Bronchos. Goonen, Frankie Hansen, and Bob Westra sparked the Broncho gang for the entire game but they didn't have quite enough "oomph" at the finish.

MUNCIE, 40; JEFF, 35—Disintegrating completely in the fourth period, the Bronchos were "also-rans" again as Muncie's Bearcats took advantage of every break presented to them and off-set Goonen's and Pechin's scoring thrusts with a long-range barrage of their own.

JEFF, 30; LEBANON, 23—With the advent of Lebanon's Tigers into the Stable, the long victory drouth was over, for Goonen, Cors, Vanderkolk, and Pechin displayed their best ball of the year and completely dominated play throughout the game.

TECH, 28; JEFF, 24—Tossing another lead overboard in the last few minutes, the Bronchos fell back into their well-worn rut against the Arsenal. The yeoman work of Goonen and Pechin was not enough to nail the Red and Black colors to the mast.

MARION, 33; JEFF, 31—When two losing teams meet, something's bound to pop, and it was Marion's six-game losing streak for they swamped the Bronchos with a second period barrage which erased an 11-7 deficit and gave them a 22-11 lead. Johnny Goonen and Bob Westra were Jeff's luminaries.

FRANKFORT, 49; JEFF, 26—Using their great height in the best manner, Frankfort's Hot Dogs laced the Broncs for the second time this year and were never in trouble in so doing. Hansen and Westra gave the Hot Dog defense the most trouble but the efforts of the two alone weren't enough.

JEFF. 33: LOGANSPORT. 23—Little Frankie Hansen won his spurs as a Broncho regular as he racked up 11 points to aid the Bronchos in registering their fourth victory against twelve defeats. Horn, Vanderkolk, and Pechin also played fine ball for the Brones.

JEFF. 20: CRAWFORDSVILLE. 16—Jeff's "jinx" was still working as they dumped the Athenians for the second time this season. Hansen and Goonen drove the C'ville defense crazy and the Brones were never threatened at any point in the game.

LOGANSPORT. 14: JEFF. 34—With revenge furnishing them with an incentive, the Berries draped another defeat on the hapless Bronchos in Berry Bowl. Frank Hansen and Jim Pechin did their share of offensive duty, but Logan's uncanny shooting made their efforts futile.

JEFF. 24: LEBANON. 22—It took a left-hander from the foul circle in the overtime for the Bronchos to register their sixth and final victory of the season. Johnny Goonen tallied 10 points to keep the Bronchos in the ball game and Frankie Hansen's floor-work set up scoring plays time after time.

SECTIONAL TOURNEY

JEFF. 46: MONITOR. 21—In a wild game the Bronchos opened sectional play by trouncing Monitor, 46-21, with Johnny Goonen, Frankie Hansen, and Vince Cors leading the way by registering 12, 8, and 6 points, respectively.

JEFF. 18: MORENCI. 18—Although the Tigers fought hard the first quarter, the Bronchos' superiority took them to the fore without trouble. Pechin's 16 points gave him high point honors but Cors, Goonen, and Westra also played fine ball.

JEFF. 34: BATTLE GROUND. 21—The Brones downed the Grounders in their third tourney start with Johnny Goonen and Connie Vanderkolk cast in starring roles.

JEFF. 33: WEST LAFAYETTE. 28—Avenging their early-season defeat at the hands of the Red Devils, the Bronchos came from behind to down West Side in the final. It was team play and not any individual's play that brought victory to the oft-beaten Bronchos.

REGIONAL TOURNEY

FRANKFORT. 44: JEFF. 31—Too many Hot Dogs eliminated the Bronchos from the chase for the state title as the height of the Hot Dogs was the only factor which dropped the Brones. Team play again featured the Broncho's play all evening although Vince Cors was the fightiest ball-player ever to sport the Red and Black of Jefferson.

SUMMARY OF TRACK SEASON

Coach Orv Martin's second year at Jefferson was expected to bring some fine results. Martin has been building for the future and with a squad composed chiefly of sophomores and juniors, the next two years are expected to be Jeff's biggest in state track circles in recent years.

The Bronchos are well supplied with speedy dash men in Goonen, Kremer, May, Henniger, Vinton Miller, and Holmes while in the distance runs Jim Vaughan is one of the best milers in the state and Morrison an exceptional half-miler.

In the field events the Broncs are represented by Starkes in the shot put, Goonen in the broad jump, Jack Vaughan in the pole vault, and Bob Miller in the high jump.

The hurdles are taken care of by Bill Holmes, Richard Ball, and Jack Kennedy while the two relay teams are both composed of speedsters. The half-mile relay is made up of May, Goonen, Henniger, and Kremer and the mile of Holmes, Morrison, Speedie, and Kennedy.

OTHER SPORTS

BASEBALL, 1939—With several returning veterans as a nucleus for this year's squad, Coach Chuck Harbaugh was anticipating a fine record for his horsehiders. A well-balanced infield, combined with a hard-hitting outfield, plus a fine battery gave the Bronchos the material for a team such as they have never before enjoyed. Returning veterans include such men as Needham, catcher; Bordenet, Shrader, Long, Watkins, and Shatzley, pitchers; Vanderkolk, first base; Cook, second base; Olds, shortstop, and Ford in the outfield. This should make the Bronchos a tough team to stop. An exceptionally strong schedule, bringing some of the state's top-notch aggregations face to face with the Jeffmen all make for a new high in Jefferson baseball history.

TENNIS, 1939—Carl Martin's tennis squad was presented with a strong schedule for 1939 and for the first time in recent years a Jefferson tennis squad is tackling several tough opponents. A group of fine racqueteers is carrying out the tennis work and Walt Bauer, Ed Cook, Bud Davis, Josh Monroe, Bob Johnson, Cleo Bryan, Bob Butz, and Frances Killian are expected to cop their share of matches for the Red and Black.

GOLF, 1939—In keeping with the "New Deal" which is being offered to Jefferson students, Coach Kenny Dobelbower is encouraging the following of golf. The 1939 team is well supplied with good golfers and a 10 to 12 match schedule gives the boys plenty of opportunity to display their talents. Although two of their better men, Bob Evans and Bill Warren were unable to play for a time, the linksmen gave a very good account of themselves and a number of the present squad of Steve Miley, Jim Moore, Shorty Engledown, Dick Brady, Dick Cole, Eugene Gordon, Don Hurtt, and Dale Von Seggern will be back next year to carry the Red and Black colors on to new victories.

SCHOOL

September 12th	Oh, dear, school starts again.
October 20th	Big pep-session! West Side went mad and threw things—mostly fruit (rotten).
October 21st	West Side game! Nuttin' ta nuttin'. We're ruined.
October 26th	Our first convo. Hurrah for Navy Day! (I got out of chemistry.)
November 4th	Booster Dance. The first dance of the year—tra la.
November 10th	Red and Black Revue! Back stage romances flourish amid grease paint and stuff!! Super Colossal Show.
November 22nd	Welsh Imperial Singers. I liked their accents, didn't you? Anyway they really could sing.
November 24th-25th	Vacation and Turkey! What more do you want?
December 4th	Bronchoette Gallop! The girls' chance to "get even." How many handsome (?) brutes were disappointed?
December 20th	Didn't the Christmas cantata make you feel in the "Holiday mood"?
December 21st	Christmas vacation! It's here at last! Have a Merry Christmas and stuff! Mostly stuff!
January 11th	Jill Edwards' convo. Pretty good, too. Pretty (period) The boys agreed.
January 23rd to 27th	Oh time of war! Oh misery! It's here again Final week! Need I say more?
January 30th	Back again—and have you noticed the new crop of preps? Well?

LENDAR

Remember the Sunshine tea dances. We all have a "swinging" good time. Heh. heh. (Laugh if it hurts.)

February 15th ..... H. Weir Cook convo. Everybody liked him. Wasn't he a marvelous speaker?

March 3rd-4th ..... Sectionals. Isn't it thrilling? We really showed 'em.

March 15th ..... Betty Robinson convo. Wasn't she cute? She seemed like one of the students. She wasn't all bulging muscles like most girl athletes.

March 27th ..... Chinese Dancer. Very exotic but for some reason the students didn't seem to appreciate her style of dancing.

April 5th ..... R. M. Zimmerman. Little fishy in the sea. Keep your distance away from me! Baracudas and sharks and octupusses-s-s-s. Very bloody and thrilling.

April 26th ..... Convo R. Hoogerhyde. Robin Hood was a "piker" in comparison. Could he shoot those arrows! Twang—!

April 27th-28th ..... Senior play. "Growing Pains." Cute, wasn't it? I'm glad we adolescents aren't as dumb as they portrayed it in the play, aren't you?

May 3rd ..... C. E. Jones' chemistry is a wonderful thing, isn't it —and when it comes to physics—! Anyway he knows his business.

May 19th ..... Senior Dance! Simply colossal. Didn't you like the swazzy decorations? The band was really in the "groove." Oh, well, you know all about it!

—M. J. Hogan.

PATH OF EDUCATION

We've traveled long upon this path.
This path of needed knowledge
As through the halls of Jeff we've passed
And soon will start to College.

The path through grades was long
As we traveled year by year.
Then to high we all did throng
And with our ending now so near.

Let us say we're glad to go
For our time with you is done:
But we shall keep a lingering thought
Of the days of work and fun.

Let not our hearts be weary now;
Let not our courage fail:
But keep on fighting till the last
Along our education's trail.

JOHN KERR "39".

THE DEATH OF ELWOOD JONES

'Twas on a warm September's day.
When Elwood Jones he died
Because he disobeyed his parents.
Their teachings he defied.

He skipped school to have some fun.
And with some pals a'swimming went
The fun was great while it did last.
Then came the accident.

Elwood went soaring through the air.
From off a rocky bank,
He came down in a graceful curve.
And into the water he sank.

Beneath the water's flowing crest.
There lay a jagged stone,
He met the stone full head on.
And crushed his cranium bone.

—JAMES E. BURKE

THE SPIRIT OF PROGRESS

The new ones come and take their place
While the old ones pass away.
Humanity cannot keep the pace
Ably and accurately alway.
New diversions, different fame
Come to those through the centuries.
Many a well known, beloved Name
Comes — Stays — and passes on to Eternity.
For we live our own life —
Through darkness and distress;
After life, just mold and dust —
In the Spirit of Progress.

—SHERRELL J. GILLESPIE

WHO IS GREAT?

When troubles overcome the mind,
And darkness covers all —
When the storm clouds come, and the billows roll,
And when Despair doth fall —
O'er your soul, and under your burden you try
To carry, but with stumbling feet —
All hope is gone, and you come face
To face with that thing called DEFEAT!
When the way is rough, and the sky is Dark,
And unkind with you has been Fate —
The man who can smile, and not give up —
YES THAT MAN IS TRULY GREAT!

—SHERRELL J. GILLESPIE

There is an honor in business that is the fine gold of it; that reckons with every man justly; that loves light; that regards fairness more highly than goods or prices or profits. It becomes a man more than his furnishings or his home. It speaks for him in the heart of everyone. His friendships are serene and secure.

Jack Young—"Do you like people who know all the answers?"
Lynn Bryan—"Gosh, no, I should say not."
Young—"Hummmm, are you an old fashioned guy?"
Bryan—"No, I'm selling dictionaries now."

Jack Morrow—"You're taking a wall on your trip with you?"
Dottie Fischer—"Yes, Jack, it's got all of my phone numbers on it."
Jack—"Why didn't you just take the phone numbers off the wall?"
Dottie—"I can't, stupid, they're in ink."

We are constantly seeking ways and means to make friends, which is always shown by the utility's persistent efforts to accomplish the best of service every day in the year — rain or shine.

Joe—"I want to change my name, your honor."
Judge—"What is your name?"
Joe—"Joe Stinks."
Judge—"I don't blame you. What do you want to change it to?"
Joe—"Charlie."

Doctor—"Why you have nothing to worry about. You can get rid of your Adam's apple by just using your throat muscles."
Bill Burkle—"You don't expect me to swallow that, do you?"

CARL'S

BEAUTIFUL SHOES

332 Main St. Lafayette, Ind.

You see a beautiful girl walking down the street: she is, of course, feminine. If she is singular you become nominative. You walk across to her, changing to the verbal and then becoming active: if she is not objective, you become plural. You walk home together. Her brother is an indefinite article. Her mother is accusitive and becomes imperative. You talk of the future and she changes to the object. Her father becomes present and you become the past participle.

A marriage license is a slip of paper which costs you $2.00 down and your entire income for the rest of your life.

"Beautiful flowers for all occasions"

Again this year we repeat R. W. Peck's famous Home Brew Recipe: Chase wild bullfrogs for three miles and gather up the hops. To them add ten (10) gallons of tan bark to give it a body, half a pint of shellac to make it smooth, one bar of soap to make it foam, and four doorknobs to hold it down after you drink it.

Boil this mess for thirty-six (36) hours, then strain through an I. W. W.'s sock to keep it from working. Add one grasshopper to each pint to give it a kick. Pour a little in the kitchen sink. If it takes the enamel off, it is ready for bottling, and how!!
